

Mentoring for Success with DCS

The Division on Corrections & Sentencing

1-on-1 Mentorship Program with Four Tracks

Academia:

1. Student mentoring track
2. Tenure-track faculty mentoring track

Alternatives to Academia:

1. Student mentoring track
2. Early career mentoring track

7cbbWcbgk]` VYa UXYVgYXcb]bXj]X U [cUgUbX]bMfYg" DufhMUbhg Wb`Y dYMc fYWj Y#dfcj]XY

- ▽ FYgMfWg ddcfh
- ▽ HYUW]b['g ddcfh
- ▽ Dfc[fYggdYWZWi]XbW

- ▽ Service support
- ▽ Networking guidance
- ▽ And, more!

What the Mentorship Committee will do for the matches:

- Provide expectations around communication and goals
- Offer suggested themes and deliverables for virtual meetings and phone calls Send reminder emails to connect with matches
- Highlight the work and accomplishments of matches

Program timeline: August 2021 - 2022

We are asking all mentors participating in this program for a minimum $20 annual donation to the Benjamin Steiner fund to help promote continued student awards and scholarships. Mentors/Mentees are expected to meet virtually at least once per month

Returning participants: If you wish to continue with the same mentoring team, please e-mail Jill Viglione instead of completing the survey.

Sign Up Here!

Questions, please contact Jill Viglione, Jill.Viglione@ucf.edu