

DCS AltAc and the Oregon Social Learning Center Presents: Researchers with Lived CJ Experience

Navigating through the trenches of a doctoral program is exceptionally difficult – the uncertainty of the process itself and not knowing what is waiting on the other side of graduation. This process is infinitely more complex and challenging for students and scholars with criminal legal system experience and a conviction. Departments and academic mentors rarely understand the unique needs of these students. Four panelists with lived experience each discuss their unique journey through the academy and offer recommendations for upcoming researchers, departments, and academic mentors.

A collaboration between the DCS AltAc Series and Oregon Social Learning Center, this rockstar panel pulls back the curtain for all researchers and students to learn more about how to support and center the voices of these scholars.

Featuring

Brandee Izquierdo, MPA, CPRS, DPA
Executive Director, SAFE Project
brandee@safeproject.us

Christopher Beasley, PhD
Assistant Professor
University of Washington-Tacoma
Co-Founder of the Formerly Incarcerated College Graduates Network
beasley2@uw.edu

Terrence S. McTier Jr, PhD
Director, Prison Education Project
Washington University in St. Louis terrencemctier@gmail.com

Patrick Hibbard, PhD
Postdoctoral Fellow
Oregon Social Learning Center
patrickh@oslc.org

Join this panel discussion: Monday, January 24 1:00 – 2:30 EST/ 10:00 – 11:30 PST