EXCELLENCE IN CORRECTIONS
STUDENT PAPER AWARD

This award is presented in recognition of the most outstanding student research paper. Eligibility is limited to papers that are authored by one or more undergraduate or graduate students and have not been previously published or accepted for publication at the time of submission. Papers written with faculty members are not considered for this award. All authors must be students at the time of submission. Submissions will be judged on five evaluative criteria, including: the overall significance of the work; its research contribution to the field; integration of prior literature in the area; appropriateness and sophistication of the research methodology; and overall quality of writing and organization of the paper. Papers should not exceed 30 pages of double-spaced text. References, tables, and figures are not included in the page limit. A financial prize will be given as part of the Benjamin Steiner Excellence in Corrections Student Paper Award.

Nominations should be sent to Jill Viglione, Ben Steiner Excellence in Corrections Student Paper Award Chair, at jill.viglione@ucf.edu no later than August, 31, 2024.

Please put "Ben Steiner Excellence in Corrections Student Paper Award Nomination" in the subject line.
