

Seeking Nominations For The

EDWARD J. LATESSA PRACTITIONER AWARD

The Edward J. Latessa Practitioner Research Award recognizes excellent social science research or implementation science that is conducted in government or community agencies to help develop better policy or operate more effectively. The emphasis will be placed on a significant contribution to research or implementation science that translates research findings into organizational change involving community corrections, institutional corrections, or the judiciary conducted by a practitioner, researcher, or policy analyst employed in a government or community agency. Besides recognition and an opportunity to present about the research at ASC, there will be a reimbursement of up to $500 to attend the annual meeting. Nomination packets should include a nomination letter and the candidate's curriculum vitae.

Nominations should be sent to Meghan Mitchell, Edward J. Latessa Practitioner Award Chair, at m.mitchell@und.edu no later than August 31, 2025. Nominees must be a member of DCS at the time of application to be eligible for the award.

Please put "Practitioner Research Award Nomination" in the subject line.

For more information, please visit:

<https://ascdcs.org/awards/practitioner-research-award/>